Novelties from VAUEN
SPRING / SUMMER 2024

Dear pipe lovers,

these days you can literally feel the hectic pace of everyday life on almost every street corner. Even if you wanted to take time for beautiful things, when could you possibly do it?

At the VAUEN pipe manufactory, we have been deliberately taking our time since 1848 to produce our masterpieces with a keen sense and by hand for pipe aficionados all over the world.

In our society, indulgence really should not fall by the wayside. That's why we have selected 'Pairing' as the theme for our new products brochure for spring/summer 2024 by combining various delightful products with other exquisite items.

There are many people who produce delectable products with passion and enthusiasm: whether it's the friendly winegrower harvesting the grapes, the charismatic bartender celebrating a cocktail or the traditional gingerbread manufacturer "Düll", which has been producing genuine Nuremberg Elisen gingerbread for four generations.

In our new spring/summer brochure, we combine our newest items with a wide variety of products, whose synergetic effects are sure to create magical moments for you. Many highlights, such as our newest pipe of the year or our designer pipe Felix, impress with their flawless design language. Our new Jay white dot series revives the swinging flair of the roaring 1920s in the year 2024. Furthermore, we feature another special novelty: JUCAN®, our new smoking device, which stands out through sophisticated innovation and technical features.

Take some time to browse through our new products brochure for spring/summer 2024 and look forward to your next blissful moment of indulgence. We would love to hear about your own pairings and moments of delight.

With all our best wishes,

Martin Ramsauer
Managing Director

PIPE OF THE YEAR 2024

WHITE DOT QUALITY

With an artfully crafted design language for true aficionados, the 2024 pipe of the year rounds off your distinguished smoking experience with an exquisite whisky pairing. With its sleek stem, a striking bowl with an implied conical shape and a tobacco chamber that is rounded at the bottom, this pipe epitomises the delightful harmony of pipe smoking.

The elegant stem and the curved lines of this unique model are perfectly reflected in the interior of a stylish whisky glass. The highly polished, silver-coloured ring and the crossed pipes made of sterling silver add an elegant accent, while the raised mouthpiece emphasises the refined design.

The 2024 pipe of the year thus becomes a visual experience that combines the art of tobacco delight with the finesse of a high-quality whisky. Select your favourite from the fascinating designs and let this unique pipe whisk you away to a year full of sensual moments of pure delight – exclusive, limited and individually numbered.

The new designer model Felix is our next pairing companion for connoisseurs who appreciate the fine flavour of a good white wine.

The Felix model was developed in collaboration with our designer Felix Hoffmann. It is distinguished by its unusual shape that extends over the entire pipe. The clear lines with the prominent silver ring and the aesthetic design harmonise perfectly with a fine white wine. Moreover, the Felix model's choice of colours is a great way to emphasise your personal style.

The designer pipe is available in three colour variations (high-gloss white, high-gloss black or brown) and with special mouthpiece designs. Our Felix model is presented in beautiful jewellery packaging.

Innovation meets craftsmanship. The name JUCAN® represents a new category in the delightful world of smoking. With the development of modern shapes and useful features, our JUCAN® model succeeds in setting amazing accents. A new kind of smoking instrument, perfect for alternative indulgence on the go.

Like a piece of chocolate, it stimulates the senses. Slow down for a moment, collect yourself and savour the moment.

Available in three white dot versions (matt black, matt brown and black/brown sandblasted), it seduces with its purist elegance. Our JUCAN® is not only a visual highlight, but also technically remarkable. There is space inside for an additional filter and an extra portion of tobacco. The integrated tamper makes the JUCAN® an all-inclusive package with an 'all-round carefree' character. Suitable for our 6 mm Dr. Perl junior activated charcoal filters for an authentic flavour profile.

JUCAN®, our alternative smoking device, comes with exclusive aluminium outdoor packaging that is not only waterproof but also odour-proof. Perfect for adventurers and globetrotters, every day and everywhere.

The new Jay white dot series pairs perfectly with a vodka martini for an all-round sophisticated experience. The smooth finish, paired with a brass ring bearing an engraved 1920s design, is reminiscent of the glamorous cocktail bars of the Roaring Twenties. This pipe is an artistic statement that captures the timeless elegance of a vodka martini and beckons you to smoke your favourite tobacco in style.

The six different shapes offer variety and individuality. Enjoy your vodka martini in style, accompanied by the Jay, which bridges the gap between the timeless cocktail and the art of tobacco tradition.

The sandblasted finish of our Jay model sets a gentle tone to soothe the soul of tea lovers. The brass ring with a hint of vintage glamour gives this pipe a touch of nostalgia reminiscent of cosy tea ceremonies. Like a perfect tea caressing your senses, the Jay exudes a soothing elegance.

With six different shapes, the sand version of the Jay model also appeals to a wide range of tastes. The brass ring, bearing witness to past decades, combines the elegance of tea with the art of smoking. Immerse yourself in the relaxed atmosphere of a delightful tea moment, accompanied by the timeless Jay, which perfectly fuses the synergy of tobacco enjoyment and tea culture.

Lessing

NON-FILTERED

Our Lessing pipe without filter features a yellow mouthpiece that embodies style and ensures an unfiltered smoking experience. As the proud bearer of the white dot, it comes in a sandblasted finish with six different bowl shapes.

In addition to giving the pipe a striking appearance, the yellow mouthpiece also creates a visual link to the characteristic colour of the Negroni cocktail. The Lessing white dot series thus becomes an accessory that not only celebrates the art of smoking, but also the enjoyment of the famous drink.

The Dante series creates an aesthetic bond with people who love a cup of good coffee. With its sandblasted finish and mottled brown mouthpiece, it captures the subtle flavours and nuances of a premium coffee. Like a cup of freshly brewed cappuccino, the Dante is presented in six different shapes as a journey through the diverse world of pure indulgence.

The new Dante series emphasises the artistic aspect of tobacco enjoyment. The sandblasted surface ensures that the pipe feels pleasant in your hand. Meanwhile, the bicolour look of the matt mouthpiece reflects the elegance of a perfect cappuccino. Experience the harmonious synergy of tobacco and coffee in every puff of the Dante, a tribute to the fine pleasures of smoking and coffee.
